SAG HARBOR TO NANTUCKET

DAY 1

Sag Harbor

Sag Harbor offers pristine beaches, breathtaking ocean views, historic homes, antique shops, hideaway inns and gourmet eateries in a truly unique setting of century old streets. Lunch or dinner at Sunset Beach Hotel and Restaurant feels more like St. Tropez than Eastern Long Island, making Sag Harbor an excellent point of embarkation for an extended New England Yacht Charter.

DAY 2

Montauk and the Hamptons

The villages and hamlets which make up The Hamptons to the east of New York's Long Island provide the perfect style and finesse for a luxury yacht charter getaway. Quaint boutiques, antique shops, art galleries and gourmet restaurants abound. Choose from chic celebrity filled South Hampton, beach perfect East Hampton, and laidback West Hampton. You can also dock or anchor in or around Montauk.

Block Island

Known for excellent cycling, hiking, sailing, fishing, surfing, and beaches, Block Island was named by The Nature Conservancy as one of the twelve sites in the list of "Last Great Places" in the Western Hemisphere. Having a history dating back to the early 1600's, in 1614, Adrian Block, a Dutch explorer, sailed to the island and gave it his name. He called it Block Island and it was in 1661 that the Island was settled. Early American red brick homes dot the island, which showcases beautiful beaches, migratory birds as well as wonderful food.

DAY 4

Newport

Newport is a city set on Aquidneck Island in the New England state of Rhode Island. The sailing capital of the USA, its yacht-filled harbor hosted the America's Cup, a renowned annual sailing regatta, for many years. Newport is also known for the Gilded Age mansions lining Bellevue Avenue, some of which are now museums. The most famous is The Breakers, an 1895 mansion patterned after a Renaissance palace. Enjoy a taste of old New England.

DAY 5

Martha's Vineyard

The Beautiful island of Martha's Vineyard is a world apart, offering a vacation ambiance unlike any other. The seaside villages attract year round visitors to their stunning beaches, gingerbread houses, bountiful recreational activities and unique New England Charm. Martha's Vineyard boasts the oldest working carousel in the country, complete with 22 wooden horses with real horse hair manes. If traveling with kids, you might also consider taking a tour of the Farm Institute, where you'll see Milk Goats, explore lush vegetable and flower gardens, and see lambs, piglets, and calves. No trip to the Vineyard is complete without stopping for some Murdick's fudge.

DAY 6

Nantucket

With class, culture, and undeniable style, the island of Nantucket is located 30 miles out at sea off the coast of southern Cape Cod, Massachusetts. Known for its pristine beaches and cobblestone streets lined with historic homes, Nantucket offers a glimpse into yesteryear. Famous for its film and wine festivals and 4th of July fireworks celebrations, Nantucket is one of the most unique, and visually stunning places in the world. Originally a booming whaling port, Nantucket has been named a National Historic District and little has changed architecturally since the 17th century, with seaside cottages and old-fashioned lamps still lining the streets.
